Dear Manish Rughani,

Re: Human Values Day Proclamation Request

Thank you for writing to the Resort Municipality of Whistler.

This letter is to advise that Council, at their Regular Council Meeting held on April 10, 2018 received your correspondence dated April 2, 2018 regarding your proclamation request.

Your correspondence was included in the Council Package, which is on permanent record and on our website. Check whistler.ca/council to access Packages and other information about Council.

Council passed a resolution directing that Human Values Day be declared in Whistler on April 24, 2018. The signed proclamation will follow this letter.

The RMOW is committed to providing open and transparent channels for community members and interested stakeholders to provide input to our organization. Input such as yours is valued by our team, and along with our many other engagement and planning tools, helps to inform ongoing municipal plans and activities.

For more details regarding options for providing input to our organization, or to ensure that you're always up to date with the latest news and details from the RMOW, delivered directly to your email inbox, visit: whistler.ca/stay-connected.

Regards,

Brooke Browning
